

AMY RIVARD THE INTERNATIONAL SINGER THE VOICE OF MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

This was your second singing performance at Madison Square Garden in New York. Your appearance was very different though. Who is your new designer?

Sara Romoli

How did you feel wearing one of our Sara Romoli's "New York Secret" corsets during your last performance at Madison Square Garden?

"I felt more confident and sexy wearing Sara Romoli's designs. They are extremely comfortable and elegant. I got a lot of comments from everyone about how beautiful and different I looked wearing Sara Romoli's design "

Have you done any other work with the new fashion designer Sara Romoli?

" This is my first time collaborating with the designer Sara Romoli and I truly look forward to having more possibilities of wearing some of her future designs. She is creating something unique and her designs make woman feel very sexy!!! She conveys her passion in her designs and you can see it. For me, she is my favorite!"

Can you tell us briefly about some of the other famous venues you've performed at?

" I have performed at over 300 different arenas and amphitheatres throughout the world but my favorites have been Radio City Music Hall, on Broadway at the Gershwin Theatre, at Red Rocks Amphitheatre in Denver, Colorado, the Old Vic and Palladium Theatres in the West End in London, England and the Cafe De Paris."

Have you worked with any famous performers during your singing career?

" I have been a singer with Celtic Woman, Riverdance and have sung with Canada's Michael Burgess and The High Kings. I have also worked with Andrew Lloyd Webber and John Barrowman."

What are your professional goals for the future?

"I am currently working on a new solo album and just starred in a movie called Planting Vines which should be released sometime in the Spring. I will definitely be wearing one of Sara's designs to the opening! "

By
Michael Drassew